SECTION 8 — Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 3, 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia issued its opinion affirming the summary judgment ruling of the United States District Court of the District of Columbia allowing the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi Indians (the “Band”) to take into trust the approximately 78 acres of land designated by the Assistant Secretary of the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the Department of Interior for the construction and operation of a Class III gambling casino under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act. The action had been initiated in August 2002 by the Citizens Exposing Truth About Casinos (“CETAC”) to prevent the designated land from being taken into trust by the United States for the benefit of the Band.

The registrant entered into a management agreement with the Band to develop and operate a gaming project on the Band’s trust lands upon the Band obtaining federal approval of the trust land and federal approval of the management agreement. The litigation was previously described in the registrant’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

FULL HOUSE RESORTS ANNOUNCES FAVORABLE COURT DECISION

Las Vegas — July 9, 2007 — Full House Resorts (AMEX: FLL) announced today a favorable court decision in the last remaining lawsuit related to its casino development project with the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi in the Battle Creek, Michigan area. A three judge panel of the Court of Appeals for the DC Circuit rejected the final claim raised by CETAC, a small anti-gaming group led by David Moore, and affirmed that the land taken into trust for the Tribe in December 2006 is properly designated its initial reservation under federal law.

After eight years of litigation, the decision affirmed the ruling entered several years ago by Judge Thomas Penfield Jackson of the United States District Court, who had already dismissed this claim. The ruling today is a culmination of rulings over the years which have rejected each and every one of the claims raised by CETAC in its effort to stall this development project which will bring needed jobs to the area, both in construction and operations. Perhaps more importantly, this project will assist this tribe in providing health care, housing, government services and jobs to its people.

Andre M. Hilliou, Chief Executive Officer of Full House Resorts, said “I am gratified by the decision of the court. We look forward to continuing our work with the Tribe to move this project forward as quickly as possible and to opening a first-class facility which will provide the Tribe and the community with a sustainable source of income from which the tribe can provide needed governmental services as well as serve as an economic stimulus to the local community.”

About Full House Resorts, Inc.

Full House owns, develops and manages gaming facilities. Full House owns the Stockman’s Casino and Holiday Inn Express in Fallon, Nevada which has 8,400 square feet of gaming space with approximately 280 gaming machines, 4 table games and a keno game. The casino has a bar, a fine dining restaurant and a coffee shop. The Holiday Inn Express has 98 guest rooms, indoor and outdoor swimming pools, a sauna, fitness club, meeting room and business center. Full House also receives a guaranteed fee from the operation of Midway Slots and Simulcast at the Delaware State Fairgrounds in Harrington, Delaware. Midway Slots and Simulcast has a total of over 1,500 gaming devices, a 350-seat buffet, a 50-seat diner, gourmet Steak House and an entertainment lounge. Midway is in the process of a $40 million remodeling and expansion, scheduled to open in the summer of 2007. Full House also has a management agreement with the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi Indians for the development and management of a first-class casino/resort with more than 2,000 gaming devices in the Battle Creek, Michigan area, which is currently in development. In addition, Full House has a Gaming Management Agreement with the Nambé Pueblo of New Mexico for the development of a coordinated entertainment venue centered on a 50,000 square foot casino and with the Northern Cheyenne Nation of Montana for the development and management of a 27,000 square foot gaming facility.
